【Monitoring】

J-CRJ900 LLC

Tranche A Notes: (BBB) with a view to downgrading → BBB

Tranche B Notes: (BB) with a view to downgrading → BB

Rating and Investment Information, Inc. (R&I) has announced the following ratings.

1. RATIONALE

These ratings are for the aircraft finance backed by monetary receivables from an airline company and aircraft.

R&I notches up the ratings for the instruments from the Issuer Rating (Undisclosed) for the airline company based on an assessment of the probability (1) that the payments on the underlying loan will continue even if the airline company falls into bankruptcy; and (2) that the rated instruments will be repaid by the maturity date with the funds collected through means such as the sale of the aircraft.

The airline company recorded a large loss in FY2020 due to the coronavirus-induced decline in passenger flight demand. The earnings environment is on an improving trend thanks to a rapid rebound of demand for domestic passenger flights in the company's domicile country that reflects the progress of vaccination. Even so, it will likely take some time before its weakened financial base recovers.

In consideration of the above, R&I affirmed the Issuer Rating for the airline company and removed it from the Rating Monitor with a view to downgrading. With these rating actions factored in, R&I has taken the following rating actions for the instruments.
